

“Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time.”

This brochure series is a product of The Rehabilitation Research and Training Center on Vocational Rehabilitation and Mental Illness (RRTC) which is jointly operated by Matrix Research Institute and the Center for Mental Health Policy and Services Research of the University of Pennsylvania’s Department of Psychiatry.

It is funded by a grant (#H133B70007) from the National Institute on Disability and Rehabilitation Research (NIDRR).

The mission of the RRTC is:
“To heighten the priority of work in the lives of individuals with mental illness.”

The activities of the RRTC include: a range of interrelated research activities examining key aspects of employment services; training projects which bring experts in the field to the practitioners, consumers and family members who can benefit most from the information they have to share; and, knowledge dissemination initiative providing useful information, in a variety of formats, to as diverse an audience as possible.
